CHATEAU
KSARA

Chateau Ksara played a key role in shaping the modern industry after its founding in 1857 in the Bekaa Valley, the country's historic agricultural heartland.

The long-standing relationship between Comptoir Libanais and Chateau Ksara is built on shared Lebanese values of heritage, tradition, family dining, and generosity.

While winemaking in Lebanon dates back over 7,000 years,

Deeply rooted in its community, the winery employs over 300 people, most of whom live nearby, and is committed to high standards of environmental responsibility-making it a respected and much-loved institution in Lebanon.
